EXPERIENCE

Major League Hacking,

Hackathon Community Lead

Jul 2019 - Present

Hackathon Community Manager

Jun 2018 - Jul 2019

- Project managed annual conference, Hackcon VIII, for 1,000 global digital attendees over 36 continuous hours. Managed 50 speakers and increased from last year's Net Promoter Score score of 51.7 to 60.7.
- Implemented a new pipeline processing method that allowed our team of 3 to process 100s of applications 2-3 months faster than previous semesters.
- Restructured mentorship to fit the unique needs of each client which resulted in strengthened relations with 20 of the largest, legacy clients and increased value in partnering with the company.
- Started the Community Experts program which gave hackathon organizing experts a platform to share their knowledge and best practices with the community of hackathon organizers.
- Launched widely-used processes and templates to help coordinate day-of hackathon logistics, such as judging hackathon projects and handling incidents of cheating.

HackRU, Co-Executive Director

Jun 2017 - Jun 2018

- Defined high-level objectives and responsibilities for 7 teams to accomplish for Rutgers University's 24-hour biannual hackathon with 600+ students.
- Discovered and secured external sponsors totalling $41,000 to service club debt, pay for hackathons, and accumulate $10,000 cash reserves.
- Formalized precedence to receive financial approval of all event expenditures, and budget sponsorship money in savings, $50,000 over 2 years.

Chartbeat, Backend SWE Intern

May 2017 - Aug 2017

- Created SQL database model and methods (Django APIs) to manage 100s of subscriptions to daily reader engagement metrics for large publishing companies, like The New York Times.
- Developed internal tests with Python's Mock library by isolating various internal APIs' functionality.
